

A PITY TO LOSE ANOTHER HAIR

35c "Danderine" Saves Your Hair—Ends Dandruff! Delightful Tonic

Only fools let hair fall out and dandruff stay. Neglect means a bald spot shortly. A little "Danderine" now will save your hair. This delightful tonic cleans the scalp of every particle of dandruff, tightens the hair-root pores, so the hair stops coming out and the vitalizing oils, which are the very life and strength of the hair, can not ooze away.

Danderine is not sticky or greasy. It has made weak, sick, neglected hair strong and healthy for millions of men and women. Your comb or brush is warning you. Hurry to any drugstore and get a bottle now. Don't wait!

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY BOURBON POST AMERICAN LEGION, OCT. 7, 1922

Whereas, certain newspapers are publishing "Memoirs of the Kaiser," which is a nefarious form of German propaganda, which may influence and prevent some people from becoming good American citizens, and

Whereas, the spreading of German propaganda for monetary gain is but profiteering in Moral Stamina and Potential American Patriotism and Citizenship, and

Whereas, these papers have paid to the Kaiser an enormous sum of money which will enable him to live in luxury, while thousands of our comrades lie in heroic graves to-day and others are disabled and suffering because they were willing to make the sacrifice to check his dastardly ambition for lust and power.

Therefore, Be it resolved by Bourbon Post, American Legion, That we condemn the spreading of German propaganda in any form whatsoever by anyone.

That we condemn war profiteers in general, but especially do we condemn profiteers in American patriotism and character.

That we condemn all efforts to give aid and condolence to the Kaiser, conceded to be the arch criminal of all ages, who still flaunts his insults in the faces of our thousands of disabled comrades, lying in hospitals and scattered over the country, and reflects upon the memory of our dead heroes who gave their lives in defense of civilization.

That copies of these resolutions be furnished to our local papers and our State and National journals.

An opinionated man is one whose opinions do not agree with your own.

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Southern Association has chosen the Paris High School for one of the participating members in the Southern Association. Hereafter our High School will have the privilege of sending a representative to the Southern Association to take part in the deliberations of that meeting.

This is a distinct honor that has come to our school. The meeting this year is to be held at New Orleans, December 5 and 6, and the Paris High School expects to be represented.

Word reached Paris High School Monday that Misses Elizabeth Taylor, Virginia Morrison and Mercy Park, Paris High School graduates of last year, attending Kentucky Wesleyan College, made a grade "A" in English for the first month. This is a significant achievement inasmuch as there are sixty freshmen in Kentucky Wesleyan this year, and only four received the grade of "A," three of the four being from the Paris High School.

One of the most enjoyable assembly periods we have had at the high school was held Monday morning, when we had as our speakers Dr. Wm. Kenney, member of the City Council, and Mr. Lew Lanus, of Cincinnati. Mr. Lanus was a physical trainer in the Government service during the war, and has had wonderful experience in the training of men. His address was unusually interesting, and his illustration of the Jui-Jutsi system of defense showed wonderful possibilities in use of this system. We all enjoyed the visit of Dr. Kenney and Mr. Lanus.

Miss Ola Johnson, State Supervisor of Home Economics Education, Frankfort, spent Tuesday visiting the Paris High School Department of Home Economics. While here she was the special guest of Miss Maud Asbury, of the Department of Sewing, and Miss Irene Evans, of the Department of Cooking. Miss Johnson was very complimentary of the superior equipment found in the Paris High School, and of the high grade of work being done in these departments.

Miss Mabel Campbell, Federal agent for Vocational Home Economics, Washington, D. C., accompanied Miss Johnson, and took special interest in visiting the Federal Board courses that are being operated in the Paris schools at present. Miss Johnson is the successor of Miss Bessie Madison in this department of work in the State, and is making a splendid record. Miss Campbell, before taking up this work in Washington, was the Home Economics teacher in the University of Kentucky.

Misses Nannie D. Clark, Mary M. Daniel, Lena Crowe, Minnie S. Kiser, Kittle M. Burbury, Irene Alexander and Prof. C. S. Holbrook were the new students who entered Dr. P. K. Holmes' class in Hygiene last Saturday.

The hour and day for this class are permanently fixed. The class will meet Saturday at 8 o'clock at the Paris High School. The course will give four University credits and is a required course at the University. After Saturday, October 14, this class will be closed to new students.

Dr. Tuthill's history course which meets Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, will be closed to new students after Tuesday, October 17.

Prof. Farquhar's class in the English Bible, which meets Saturday morning at ten o'clock, will be closed to new students after October 21.

These are unusually attractive courses, and if you are interested in any of them, get into these classes on or before the above dates.

Faulty Philosophy.

Nothing is more obviously false than that the remedy for the inequality among men consists in their return to the condition of savages and beasts. Philosophy will never be understood if we approach the study of its mysteries with so narrow and illiberal conceptions of its universality.—Shelly.

The Ring Finger.

The fourth finger, which has less motion than the others, has the advantage of being protected by the other fingers. It owes to this circumstance a comparative immunity from injury, and this accounts for its use as the ring finger.

DYE BLOUSE OR BABY'S COAT IN DIAMOND DYES

NO MONEY NECESSARY

It's interesting, educational and fun, and costs nothing to try. It is not a subscription contest, and you don't have to send in a single subscription in order to win a prize. We know this is the best puzzle you have ever seen—nothing hard, just different, that's all. We venture to say that you never have had as much fun as you will have while playing this game. Do not delay—start your list of "S-words" tonight and see if you will not agree with us.

FOLLOW THESE RULES

1. This Puzzle Game is open to any man, woman, boy or girl who is not an employee of The Cincinnati Enquirer or a member of an employee's family. It costs nothing to take part in the game.
2. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively—1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address on the top of each sheet. Answers must be mailed before midnight, Monday, November 6, 1922, and addressed to H. C. Kloecker, Puzzle Manager, The Cincinnati Enquirer.
3. Only words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words will be considered as errors. If the singular of a word is used the plural cannot be counted and vice versa. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although it is more than one word equally applicable to an object any one of them will count.
4. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "S," naming objects shown in the picture, will win First Prize; second nearest, Second Prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission. This will be figured on a percentage basis. Neatness, style or handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
5. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.
6. Persons may work together in preparing their lists, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
7. In the event of a tie for any prize offered the full amount of such prize will be paid to each person so tied. The correct list will be made up of correct words submitted by contestants, and will not consist of any "master" or "predetermined" list.
8. The following well-known citizens of Cincinnati, having no connection with The Enquirer, will act as judges. They will use as their authority Webster's New International Dictionary, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive:
Mr. A. L. Behrman, Postmaster, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. Randall J. Condon, Superintendent of Public Schools, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Judge Edw. T. Dixon, Cincinnati, Ohio.
9. These judges will meet directly following the close of the Puzzle Game, and the names of the Prize Winners and the winning list of words, together with the correct list, will be published in The Enquirer just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.
